THERE IS NO SECRET
IN THIS WOMAN'S CASE.

Mrs. Campbell Wishes Her Letter Published So That the Truth May Be Known.

Of the thousands of letters received from women all over the world by Mrs. Pinkham, not one is given to the public unless by the wish of the writer. Thus absolute confidence is established between Mrs. Pinkham and her army of patients; and she freely selects a letter from any woman, rich or poor, who is in ill health or ailing.

In the case of Mary E. Campbell of Albion, Noble Co., Ind., her suffering was so severe, her relief so suddenly realized, and her gratitude so great, that she wishes the circumstances published, in the hope that others may be benefited thereby. She says:

"My physician told me I had dropsy and falling of the womb. My stomach and bowels were so shaken I could not get a full breath. My face and hands were bloated badly. I had that dreadful bearing down pain, backache, palpitation of the heart and nervousness.

"One of my physicians told me I had something growing in my stomach; and the medicine that I took gave me relief only for a short time. I thought I must die. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it worked like a charm.

"After taking the first bottle I could walk across the street; now I am well. I advise all my friends to take it, for it is surely the most wonderful medicine for female ills in the world. I feel that my cure is miraculous."

MARY E. CAMPBELL, Albion, Noble Co., Ind.

Never in the history of medicine has the demand for one particular remedy for female diseases equalled that attained by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and never in the history of Mrs. Pinkham's wonderful Compound has the demand for it been so great as it is to-day. Druggists say it is wonderful.

From Maine to California, from the Gulf to the St. Lawrence, come the glad tidings of woman's suffering relieved by it. All intelligent women now acknowledge its reliability.

FOR UNIVERSAL PEACE.

New Yorkers Take Up the Arbitration Movement.

DR. DEPEW FRAMES RESOLUTIONS.

They Provide For Permanent Arbitration Between United States and England—National Conference to Be Held In Washington.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—A meeting of prominent citizens of this city and Brooklyn has been held at the residence of Mr. William E. Dodge. The meeting was called by Mayor Strong, General Bristow, Bishop Potter, ex-Chief Justice Daly, Hon. Seth Low and Mr. Dodge for the purpose of forming a committee of representative citizens of New York and Brooklyn to co-operate with similar committees, which have been already established in Chicago, Washington, Philadelphia and other prominent cities in the United States, whose object is the calling of a national conference in the interest of international arbitration between Great Britain and the United States.

Hon. Chauncey M. Depew proposed the following preamble and resolutions, which were adopted:

Whereas, The "true grandeur of nations" means the arts of civilization, justice secured by statute and magnanimity inspired by good will, which conditions are always marred by the wasteful, bitter violence of war, and

Whereas, The United States and Great Britain, akin in language, jurisprudence and legal methods, are already accustomed to arbitrate their disagreements and have emphatically declared themselves in favor of such arbitration—congress by the action of both house in 1882 and the house of commons by its vote in 1893; therefore,

Resolved, That we earnestly desire such action by our national legislature and the executive as shall make permanent provision for some wise method of arbitration between the two countries, it being our hope that such a step will ultimately lead to international arbitration throughout the civilized world.

Resolved, Accordingly, that measures be taken in the interest of such arbitration and in concert with like committees from other cities for the convening in the city of Washington at the earliest practicable date, of a conference of citizens, representing every portion of the country without distinction of party or creed.

Resolved, That we gratefully recognize the action already taken in this direction by representative citizens of Chicago, Philadelphia and other cities and that we rely on their vigorous co-operation in proving the success of the proposed national conference.

Mr. Depew said that the international arbitration embracing all the nations of Europe was impossible at the present time, but he claimed that between Great Britain and the United States it was not so. The question was being carefully considered by both religious and commercial bodies in Great Britain, and it was very probable that the Liberal party would embody it as a plank in their political platform.

In conclusion, Mr. Depew said: "In our own country, I think, as this movement progresses, it will develop that perfect unanimity exists on this subject, and before long the universal peace which the church has been praying for for 2,000 years will be realized."

Bishop Potter, Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, J. C. Cadwalader, Henry E. Howland and W. E. Dodge were appointed as delegates to a meeting in favor of arbitration to take place in Independence hall, Philadelphia, on Washington's birthday, with power to add to their number.

A SLAP AT MANDERSON.

Senator Thurston Makes a Peculiar Speech Favoring McKinley.

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 19.—The McKinley club entertained with a banquet last night representatives of the McKinley clubs in Nebraska. Senator Thurston said he had nothing to do with the organization of the McKinley clubs, but was anxious to see Nebraska Republicans free to exercise their choice for president. He thought eight of every ten Nebraska Republicans preferred McKinley.

Said he: "I only ask that the friends of McKinley see to it that the will of the majority is not thwarted; to see that every candidate for delegate honestly announces his position, and above all I ask that the Nebraska delegatian shall be selected in such a way that it cannot be used for barter."

This speech is very significant following the announcement of the candidacy of Senator Manderson of this state.

A Parson Arrested and Fined.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Feb. 19.—Rev. Jesse Roseberry, a minister of this county, has been arrested in Central City, while en route to the cemetery in a funeral procession. Roseberry pulled a bottle of whisky from his pocket and took a drink, which he said the physicians had prescribed for him during the cold weather. He was fined $10, and given a rigid lecture by Mayor Hall, after which he drove to the cemetery, where he conducted the funeral services.

MORE LONG DISTANCE FIGHTING.

Corbett and Fitz Pay Respects to Each Other by Telegraph.

EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 19.—Fitzsimmons has received the following telegram from Corbett at Chicago: "I read in the papers that you said I was a cur. The next time I see you I will make you take it back, like I did before."

Julian sent the following reply: "All right, chappie. Get yourself in good condition and get down here quick, but mind you, get yourself in better condition than you were at Hot Springs. Fitzsimmons will put you out of existence the very nex dayt after he places Maher among the has-beens."

Fitzsimmons says he will whip Maher and become champion, and then give Corbett a chance to win it back.

Buck Connelly declares Maher will be in the ring on Friday; that he thinks Peter will be in reasonable shape then so far as his eyes are concerned. Dr. Gandell declares that while Maher may, he should not attempt to fight under a couple weeks. Should the men fight the battle is expected to be a short and sharp one. It is the plan of the Maher party, if they must fight, to send their man after Fitzsimmons with a rush in the hope of getting Fitzsimmons on the go, and landing him by a fortunate blow early in the proceedings. It is in fact about the only hope the ill-conditioned man has.

Later reports from Las Cruces are to the effect that one of Maher's eyes is entirely well and that the other is practicaly free from inflammation. He has begun to train again. It is announced that he surely will be in condition to enter the ring on Friday.

BANK ROBBED IN DAYLIGHT.

A Cashier In San Francisco Shot At—The Robbers Escape.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19.—Three masked men entered the Market Street bank, a small institution in the Spreckels building, shortly after 10 a. m., and ordered Cashier Hopkins and Bookkeeper Hayhurst to throw up their hands. Hopkins, who was at the counter, refused and one robber fired, a bullet passing his head but striking neither official. The robbers then climbed through the hole in the wire screen at the cashier's window and seized the two bank officials and hustled them into the vault.

A piece of carpet caught in the door. Hastily dumping a pile of gold on the cashier's counter into a sack they escaped. Although market street was crowded with passing people, the robbers made good their escape. It is supposed they secured only $800.

A STRANGE PHENOMENON.

Black Snow Falls In Chicago and Neighboring Places.

CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—"Black snow" was a novelty enjoyed by this city last night. Between 6 and 7 o'clock there was a fall of a couple of inches.

The weather bureau officials and other supposed good experts were at first inclined to attribute the phenomenon to local atmospheric conditions, in combination with the smoke and grime of the city. Advices, however, that the same results were observed in the suburbs, 35 miles distant, upset all such explanations.

The black snow also fell in Eastern Iowa, Southern Wisconsin, Northern Illinois and Western Indiana.

Terrorized by an Earthquake Shock.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, Feb. 19.—An earthquake shock, which was preceded by deep subterranean ramblings and alarming noises, has been experienced here. The inhabitants were terror stricken until the noises ceased.

Russia Behind the Rebellion.

SHANGHAI, Feb. 19.—Information has been received from Korea that a Russian force supported the king of Korea in killing the Korean ministers. The new cabinet members of Korea, it is added, are wholly puppets in the pay of Russia, and it is not doubted in certain circles that the whole coup was directed from St. Petersburg.

BAPTIZED IN A WIG.

Laughable Result Due to a Convert's Great Personal Pride.

It was proved at a baptizing a few days ago that it is well to go well prepared if you are to be baptized. A citizen who was immersed at the last occurrence of this kind can testify to this effect. This gentleman, says the Louisville Commercial, had intended to be baptized, but it took him a long time to make up his mind. At last, however, he came to a decision, and the minister led him to a pool. So far all was well.

The trouble commenced as soon as the minister tried to put the citizen's head under the water. The citizen apparently did not object to standing in the water up to his ears, but further, or rather deeper, he did not wish to go. Finally, as a last resort, the minister placed his hand on his head and began to bear down. As he did so the citizen's mass of hair slipped from his head, and the minister found himself standing with a wig in his hand, while the bald head of the citizen loomed up conspicuously.

After this there was no trouble in getting this head under the water. The citizen had always carefully concealed the fact that he was bald, and when he was found out he went under the water so willing and stayed so long that the spectators became frightened. He was taken out very much ashamed of himself.

ODD BILLIARD FACTS.

Making a Table in a Day—The Balls Seasoned in Incubators—Coloring Red Balls.

A billiard table can be built in 24 hours if carte blanche is given to the manufacturer, but he prefers to have time to get the right effects, from one month to six. The wood needs to be seasoned for a period of nearly seven years. Rich, deep Spanish mahogany is used, pollard oak, ebony and satin wood.

Tables are not always covered in green. Blue is sometimes used and a pure olive green. The late Prince Leopold was the first to make use of the latter color, and olive green is known to-day in the billiard world as "Prince Leopold's color."

The balls must be well seasoned before they are used for play. Manufacturers have incubators in which to store them that they may undergo the drying process. Some incubators will hold fully 3,000 balls. When they are first made they are "green." Solid ivory is the only satisfactory material of which to make them; "artificial balls" (those made of composition) are much heavier and do not wear well. English makers, to give the red balls a perfect color, steep them in a decoction that is sometimes described as the "guardsman's bath." This is extracted from the old coats of "Tommy Atkins," and for billiard balls it is the finest scarlet dye known.

VICTORIA'S CHIEF COACHMAN.

Quite a Big Man with Sixty Others to Help Him.

The queen's state coachman, Edward Miller, is an old and faithful servant, who has held his post for 36 years, says Spare Moments. He drove the queen to the duke of York's wedding, on which occasion he handled four horses from the box. There were no postillions. The supreme control of the royal stables rests, of course, with the master of the house, an office at present held by the duke of Portland. Next to his grace in command in the crown equerry. Sir Henry Ewart, who is really the acting chief. Sir Henry, by the way, looks after the naming of the horses. His duties, however, are not all so light as this one. The immediate control of the mews is in the hands of Mr. Nicholas, who was formerly a lieutenant in the royal horse artillery. He has under him a staff of about 60 officials. One of the most interesting relics of old Buckingham house is the "riding horse," which has other interests than that of the grammarian's escape. In it the royal children were taught horsemanship, and on the wall one may see the iron brackets used when they practiced lemon cutting.

THE TRAMP GOT A GOOD MEAL.

He Also Proved That Restaurant Men Sometimes Make Grave Errors.

"No, sir! I never feed tramps," said the boss of the lunch counter. "If you get started to feeding bums, they will never quit coming."

A tall man, shabbily dressed, came shuffling into the room, and walked to a seat in the rear as the proprietor was talking. He heard the conversation, lifted his eyebrows in a deprecating way and ordered a sirloin steak, with mushrooms and French fried potatoes.

The proprietor and his friend chatted on and the tall man ate his steak and had coffee, wheat cakes, cup custard, apple pie and an order of cheese on the side. When he arose and wended his way up the aisle he bore in his hand a check for an even dollar. He paused in front of the desk.

"I believe," he said, "that you said a few minutes ago that you never feed tramps?"

"Exactly," answered the proprietor.

The tall man chuckled. "I am sorry, sir," he said, "but you do not always tell the truth."

And he escaped uninjured while the proprietor was realizing the truth and force of his observation.

HIS PRICES WERE HIGH

Some time ago an Englishman visited Caifa, an out-of-the-way place in the dominion of the sultan of Turkey. On asking for his hotel bill before leaving he found himself charged outrageous prices for the sorry accommodation he had received. He flew into a rage, but finally, on the advice of his wife, paid the whole amount. A few days afterwards the hotel keeper received a letter, saying: "Your prices are too high!" A few weeks later a package arrived. The inn keeper removed wrapper after wrapper, 100 of them, and then found a card on which was written: "Your prices are too high!" A few months later, quite lately, a large box was sent him, and he paid a goodly sum for freight charges. On opening it, and after doing a tremendous amount of unpacking, he found another card: "Your prices are too high!" Since then the poor man has refused to accept any more letters, parcels or boxes.

HAPPENED IN A SLEEPING CAR.

The Deplorable Result of a Change of Berths Made Late at Night.

"My friend and I had secured two lower berths opposite each other. He was not a smoker, so he concluded to tumble in, while I went forward to the smoking compartment for a cigar before I followed his example. Possibly I found the game of cards which was in progress between the two commercial travelers interesting, or else the cigar was more soothing than usual, but, however it was, I remained longer than I had intended.

"In the meantime we had made a stop and taken on a couple of passengers, an aged couple of dignified and aristocratic appearance. Every lower berth was taken and over half of the uppers, so the worthy pair were not jubilant over the prospect of climbing into an upper berth, and their objections were plainly audible to others than the porter. At last that sable gallant, driven to his wits' end, came in to where I sat placidly smoking, apparently unconscious of what had been going on in the car. With a deprecating air he approached and asked me if I would exchange my lower berth for an upper in favor of the old people. I readily assented, and the couple, grateful and contented, immediately took possession, and judging from the duo of discordant vocal sounds which soon emanated from 'lower 10' they had fallen into peaceful slumber.

"In the meantime my friend, being a heavy sleeper, was quite unconscious of the change that had been made in the arrangements. So, early in the morning, he crawled out and proceeded to get his shoes from under the berth, sitting upon the edge of the bed while he leisurely drew on one shoe. Then he began to think I had enjoyed myself undisturbed quite long enough, and commenced to shake the curtains and call to me to get up. Meeting with no response he concluded to make it more effectual, so he calmly drew aside the curtains, noticing nothing unusual in the dim light, and gave several resounding slaps with the remaining shoe upon the most obvious portion of the anatomy. At the same time he called out: 'Come, aren't you ever going to get up?'

"For answer several feminine shrieks rent the air, while two wrathful faces rose up and confronted my friend, who shrank back aghast. Every head popped out between the curtains, my own included, but quickly grasping the situation, I sank back convulsed. In the meantime the porter had appeared, and in due course of time and with many explanations succeeded in pacifying the aged couple."—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

RIPPING GARMENTS TO PIECES.

In Doing This There Should Be No Pulling or Tearing.

There is a general impression that it is an easy enough matter to rip up a garment. Most anybody can do it, and it is an undertaking that requires no special skill or care. Acting on this idea, clothing is pulled, torn, cut with knives, snipped with scissors and finally taken to pieces after this unprofitable fashion, and the operator comes and declares that everything is ready. A dyer who handles a large quantity of black goods says that he long ago gave up expecting anybody to rip a garment up as it should be done. If the seams are ripped, they are full of threads; sometimes there are buttons on; hooks and eyes are not uncommon; the fronts of them are stuck full of pins of various sorts, and linings, facings, braids and the like remain, in whole or in pieces, just as the individual who had charge of the disintegrating process happens to leave them.

To rip up a garment properly there should be no pulling, tearing or dragging apart. If one cannot take the end of the thread and pull it out, the stitches should be cut with a sharp knife. Very few persons can rip a garment with scissors without doing it great harm; indeed, many find it impossible to cut stitches with anything without making holes that render the goods absolutely worthless for the one who originally wore it. When it is done the edges are so ragged that a much smaller pattern must be used. In preparing goods for the dyer, or to be made over, every stitch should be taken out. It seems scarcely necessary to say that facings, braid and hooks and eyes must be removed, but this is imperative, in view of the condition in which garments come to the dressmaker and the dyer. Many dresses, capes and jackets are perfectly wearable after being carefully ripped, brushed, sponged and pressed. It is a wonder that some one does not set up an establishment for ripping clothes and putting them in order for the dressmaker. The owner of them frequently has not time to do them properly, or is too careless and understands too little the requirements of them to do it had she all the time in the world. Some semi-invalid in every community might get a tolerable living, or at least add to a limited income by preparing garments for remodeling.—N. Y. Ledger.

HOW SHE REFORMED HIM.

No Admittance in the Small Hours Without the Password.

"What is the matter?" asked one of Mr. Vivvies' boon companions. "You haven't taken the pledge, have you?"

"No; but I'm not looking on the wine when it is red in the cup, just the same."

"Reformed, have you?" "Yep. You've heard of a woman's marrying a man with the idea of getting him to stop drinking. It doesn't always work, but it did in my case. My wife is a stupendously clever woman." Made you promise, did she?" "She didn't have to. When I started downtown to-night she said: 'I've lost the latch key, dear, but it won't make any difference. You ring the bell and I'll let you in.' I said: 'All right.' 'Only,' she said, 'we'd better agree on some password, so that when you ring I can look out of the window and make sure it isn't a burglar.' 'Of course,' said I; 'what'll the password be?' 'I have it,' she answered; 'it mustn't be too simple. You just say 'Irrepressible reprehensibility,' and then I'll come down and let you in.' Gentlemen, if I can't say irrepressible reprehensibility when I get home I don't get in, and, moreover, I assume the chances of being taken for a housebreaker. I've simply got to be careful." And he went over and resolutely seated himself next to the ice-water tank.

EBENSBURG, CAMBRIA CO., PA.

FRIDAY, - - FEBRUARY 21, 1896.

A STEAMER crossing the Brisbane river Queensland, was capsized and 40 persons drowned.

A REMARKable feat in moving was successfully accomplished in Chicago recently when a large stone church, with a massive square tower, was jacked up from its foundation and moved a distance of fifty feet to another lot.

DURING the progress of a masked ball given by the Artist's club, of Santarem, a town fifty miles from Lisbon, in Portugal, on Tuesday night at the close of the carnival a fire broke out in the building and flames spread with frightful rapidity. A terrible panic ensued and many of the dancers and several outsiders who went to their rescue were either burned to death or fatally crushed and trampled in the rush to escape from the burning building. Forty bodies have been recovered.

THE momentous problems of state, which since the first of the present year have engagd the attention of European powers, have not been allowed to interfere with the stupendous preparations now making for the coronation of Czar Nicholas and his gracious consort of Russia. The arrangements are rapidly nearing completion and there is every indication that the tens of thousands who will gather at Moscow in May will witness the grandest pageant of imperialism that Europe has seen during the present generation.

THE state department has received a report by cable from United States Minister Terrell at Constantinople in reference to the case of the American missionary Knapp, who was arrested at Bitlis by the Turkish authorities on a charge of inciting rebellion. Mr. Terrell has secured a suspension of the proceedings against the missionary and a safe conduct for him whenever the mountains can be crossed to Constantinople where the minister himself will examine into the case. Mr. Knapp will bring with him three women and five children.

THOSE who think that this Republican congress will do anything to make effective the law for the suppression of trusts are very much mistaken. Many of the members are indebted for their election to the support of the trusts, as the trusts are in turn indebted to Republican legislation for leave to exist. At the solicitation of congress the attorney general has pointed out the changes in the Sherman anti-trust law necessary to make it effective; but there will be no answering legislation. Indeed, it would be an act of inconsistency on the part of those who issist upon making trusts to pass laws intended to unmake them. When the trusts shall be pulled down the Republican party shall also be pulled down, and both will fall in a common ruin.

THE rank and file of the Democracy of Pennsylvania, as a general rule do not expect much of a display of discretion, or judgment, or in fact any sensible movement as the outcome of a meeting of the present leaders of the party in in this state.

When the state central committee met at Harrisburg, on Wednesday of last week, in addition to fixing the time and place for the meeting of the state convention, with a characteristic capacity for mischief, it passed a resolution in which it recommended the Democracy of Pennsylvania to "present to the Democratic national convention the name of ex Governor Pattison as that of a strong and available candidate for the presidency."

Passing by the merits of the claims of Pennsylvania's Democracy to furnish a Democratic candidate as not worth mentioning, it goes without saying that ex-Governor Pattison is neither a strong nor is he an available candidate for the Democracy. No man is a strong candidate that cannot carry his own state and it would require more assurance than even the present leaders of the party in this state could assume, to pretend that the ex governor could, at the coming presidential election, poll more than his party vote, if he could even do that.

To be an available Democratic candidate from a Republican state it would be necessary that the candidate have some exceptional strength or qualification, or some magnetic influence that would inspire the people of other states with a belief in his leadership. If ex-Governor Pattison possesses any of these attributes they have been very carefully concealed. The fact that Robert E. Pattison had been twice elected governor, each time wholly on account of dissensions in the ranks of the Republicans, and that after each election his party had lapsed backward, is an indication of weakness, to say the least, and a failure on his part and on the part of those he should have commanded, to grasp and hold for the party the fruits of victory that exceptional circumstances had placed within its reach.

The outlook for the Democratic party in the coming presidential contest is not as favorable as we could wish—it might be better. A wise choice and sound platform, however, as the result of the work of the delegates sent to the Chicago convention may do much to improve, and make the campaign not altogether aimless. And while it may be necessary to the political existence of the present leaders of the Democratic party in Pennsylvania to have a trading horse bridled and tied at Chicago until their boot money can be sufficiently estimated, it would be much better for the welfare of the party to send to Chicago an untrammelled delegation—a delegation honestly and unselfishly bent on the nomination of the best ticket—a delegation not tied to a helpless, hopeless candidate.

A GLANCE at the latest report of the Treasury Bureau of Statistics, giving the returns of exports and imports and government revenues and expenditures for 1895, says the Philadelphia Record, will serve to correct many an erroneous impression created by incessant and untiring partisan misrepresentations in Republican newspapers and on the floor of congress. It is asserted morning and evening that the duties on imports are wholly inadequate to support the government, and that on this ground the Reed-Dingley tariff has become necessary in order to stop the growing treasury deficit. Even if the assertions as to the needs of the treasury had been true, it has been shown that the proposed tariff bill is not designated to yield more revenue, but to increase the protective taxes on prime necessaries of living, as the outcome of what the Hon. Ben Butterworth describes as "a political and capitalistic combine."

With all the partisan clamor over the Wilson tariff, the official returns show that, while greatly reducing the burdens of the people and removing grevious obstructions to trade, it is better than was the McKinley act as a measure of fiscal revenue. In 1895 the revenues from imports amounted to $164,452,026 In the three McKinley years of 1892, 1893 and 1894 the average revenue from imports was $165,426,808. Will it be believed that all that partisan outcry against the Wilson tariff and all the laudation of the McKinley tariff in comparing them as measures of revenue have been over a matter of less than a million dollars? But while the revenues from customs under the present tariff will steadily rise with expanding trade, under the McKinley tariff the revenues were dwindling from year to year by reason of its obstructions to trade—as thus: Revenues from customs in 1892, $191,737, 963; in 1893, $173,281,436; in 1894, $131,261,054. These returns show that had not the Republicans been driven from power in 1892 they would have been obliged to reduce the barbarous protective duties in order to provide necessary revenues. In face of this experience, they now propose to partially restore these protective duties, with the pretense of increasing public income, when the treasury surplus from the sales of bonds is more than sufficient to meet every expenditure of the government.

It is not the fault of the Wilson tariff, nor of the administration, that the receipts from the internal tax on spirits have steadily declined. Notwithstanding the increase of 90 cents to $1 10 a gallon, the revenue from spirits in 1895 amounted to $72,280,570, against $95,157,271 in 1892. The explanation of this enormous decline in the revenues from spirits is that the average American citizen is consuming less and less whisky every year for drink. Nor has this decrease in the use of whiskey been made up by an increase consumption of beer; for the treasury returns from beer are very little greater now than they were four years ago. But while by reason of the voluntary revolution in the drinking habits of the American people the revenues from whiskey have declined more than $20,000,000 since 1892, it serves the purpose of dishonest partisan enemies of the present tariff to attribute the loss of government receipts wholly to a decline in customs. This falsehood is necessary as a basis for a fraudulent tariff bill.

But, in spite of the evidence that no more revenue is needed, and that the rapid decline in the pension list will soon cause a large treasury surplus, the Republicans in congress persist in the attempt to fool the American people as to the real purpose of the Reed Dingley tariff bill. The purport of this bill is as clear as if the agreement between the Republican politicians in congress and the trusts had been sealed, signed and delivered. By this mute agreement the parties of the first part offer to increase the bounties to monopoly by an increase of 15 per cent. in tariff duties, on condition that the parties of the second part shall contribute from the profits thus extorted from the people sufficient sums of money for the approaching Republican campaign for president and congress. Whether passed or not, the Reed-Dingley tariff bill is a foretaste only of what the country might expect should the wild hunt of the combination of politicians and trusts for spoils prove successful. The Republicans of congress still profess a strong desire to put this bill of abominations under the nose of President Cleveland. They could not afford him a more signal opportunity to serve the country by an exercise of the veto power. The chance of putting a stroke of his pen through such a legislative iniquity would be only another instance of Mr. Cleveland's marvelous luck.

A DISPATCH from Washington Pa., says: The whole county is worked up over the Flinn road law and its proposed application to Washington county roads. The grand jury meets in special session to-day to consider the petition of the commissioners for permission to improve certain roads, aggregating 32 miles, and estimated to cost $5,000 per mile. Several townships have held meetings and appointed committees to go in person, or employ counsel to go before the grand jury and protest against the improvement. Other counsel will represent men along the routes already surveyed. Strange enough, the opposition comes from farmers, who would alone be benefited in any extent. As there are five separate pieces of road to consider, the jury will probably have to sit several days.

AT Chicago on Wednesday, Prosecuting Attorney Pearson, in closing his argument in the murder trial of Nic Marzen, swung aloft a butcher's cleaver with which the murder was committed. The cleaver flew off the handle, sailed over the heads of a dozen people, and penetrated one of the supporting pillars of the court room, passing within an inch of the face of a man sitting there.

Washington Letter.

Washington, D. C., Feb., 15, 1896 — The Quay-Platt Reed combine put a new come in on the political boards announcing the candidacy of Quay for the Republican presidential nomination It was expected to make a political sensation, but it didn't. Quay's candidacy, although followed by a qualified denial from him, may be accepted by the gullible Republicans of Pennsylvania as a thing of life, just as many New York Republicans have accepted the candidacy of Governor Morton, launched by the same combine, but, bless your soul, that doesn't make it so. There isn't the slightest doubt among politicians that this combine wants Reed nominated In addition to that, this Quay boom is being used to let Senator Cameron, who has already been forced by Quay to announce that he would not be a candidate for re-election to the senate, understand that the money he has put into his literary bureau, established to boom him as a Republican silver candidate for the presidential nomination, has been wasted and that his political aspirations may now be pigeonholed for good and all Quay wants to control the Pennsylvania delegation, just as Platt does that of New York. They will at the proper time throw them to Reed, unless it becomes apparent before that time that Reed can't be nominated. In that case they will throw them to the man they can make the most advantageous deal with They are out to win. They would prefer doing it with Reed, but will not hesitate to throw him overboard if it becomes necessary to win with some other man.

The Republican senators are still very much in doubt about their future programme. They are trying to make some sort of a deal with the Populists to get the house tariff bill through the senate without amendment They have not yet attempted to elect the senate officers nominated by their caucus with the exception of the assistant doorkeeper who was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Captain Bassett.

The papers covering the Waller case were this week sent to congress by President Cleveland, in answer to a recent resolution asking for them. And if they do not make certain Republicans who have been using this case to make political capital feel like fools they must be queerly constituted. Instead of having neglected Waller because he was a negro, as these Republicans have so loudly asserted, the administration has, because he is an American citizen, succeeded in getting the French government to release him from prison, although the papers sent to congress prove beyond a doubt that he was guilty of the offense for which he was sentenced—treasonable correspondence concerning the movements of the French in Madagascar. The papers sent to congress also show that Waller's valuable concessions from the government of Madagascar are not believed in by anybody but himself, and have nothing official upon which to stand. The French government agrees to release Waller, as a courtesy to this government, merely stipulating that he shall make no claim for damages except through the French courts. Thus endeth the disagreeable chapter.

The senate this week adopted a resolution directing the Secretary of Agriculture to resume the free distribution of seeds.

If Speaker Reed has counted upon the support of any silver Republicans in his tight for the presidential nomination he would better scratch them from his calculations. They know him now for their enemy. Not because of the vote by which the house refused to agree to the free coinage substitute for the house bond bill, which was passed by the senate, because they knew all the time that a large majority of the house was opposed to silver, and that Mr. Reed himself would vote for free coinage, as he had done before. It is for the unexpected knockdown blow which has been administered to silver by the action of the house committee on territories, which this week voted against reporting a bill for the admission of Arizona to statehood, and which will do the same for new Mexico and Oklahoma, that the silver men are blaming Speaker Reed. It is no secret that the action of the committee was taken solely because it was known that Arizona would have sent two silver senator, and it is regarded as certain that the same reason will cause the committee to take the same action on the bills for the admission of New Mexico and Oklahoma. The silver men charge that Speaker Reed selected the members of the committee with the special view of having them block the administration of the territories, and they will not fail to make use of that charge against him, particularly in the northwest.

The senate has passed a bill appropriating $100,000 for the preliminary surveys for the erection of a memorial bridge across the Potomac from Washington. M.

She is Still Alive.

New York, Feb. 13.—Beatrice Plummer, a servant employed by J. MacNeider, in the Monterey apartament house, One Hundred and Fourteenth street and Manhattan avenue, was cleaning the windows on the sixth floor, facing One Hundred and Fourteenth street, yesterday morning, when she lost her balance and fell from the sill from which she was sitting.

In the descent she made several sumersets, striking the cornice projecting from the first floor, and falling into a grass plot. This saved her life. She slid off the cornice to the turf, landing on her back. She was picked up unconscious and removed to the Manhattan hospital.

There the doctors were surprised to find all her bones sound and unbroken.

Found Guilty of Manslaughter.

Wilmington, Del., February 16.—Daniel Brown and John J. Swan, charged with causing the death of Leon Pisa at the state insane hospital at Farnhurst, were found guilty of manslaughter. Michael J. Lynch, who was indicted with Brown and Swan, was acquitted, but he is also charged with assault and battery. The jury went out late last night and returned with the verdict at 9 o'clock this morning. The penalty for manslaughter is a fine of from $400 to $4,000 and from one to five years in prison. Brown, Swan and Lynch were attendants in the hospital and Pisa was a patient. The men were charged with beating Pisa and inflicting the injuries that caused his death.

Charged With Uxoricide.

Lancaster, Feb. 16.—John Herr, aged fifty years, of Columbia, was arrested to-day charged with choking to death his wife, of about the same age. The dead body of the woman was found in her home last night. Herr when arrested was under the influence of liquor and he is supposed to have committed the crime when in that condition. The coroner had a preliminary examination of the body and an autopsy was ordered. Herr was committed to jail, pending the coroner's verdict.

Fearful Powder Explosion.

Scranton, Pa, Feb, 16.—There were no church services at Jermyn to day, nor did many of the people stir out of their homes. All were busy replacing the windows which were smashed by the terific explosion last night at one of the dry houses of the Rushdale Powder works. Some residents worked all night but the the town's supply of window glass was so quickly exhausted that dealers hurried to this place and Carbondale for an additional stock. To-day the thermometer ranged from 14 to 22 degrees and the people suffered considerably from the cold.

The damage done by the explosion was so great that not a house in Jermyn escaped some injury. In Fichbald on the south, and Mayfield and Carbondale on the north, there were many broken windows. Some houses in Jermyn were shaken from their foundations, but no one was injured. Fire followed the explosion, but it was confined to the dry-house and none of the many other buildings of the powder works suffered. The works are owned by the Moosic Powder company, of this city. The loss is $3,000 on the building, and four tons of powder destroyed. About the same amount of damage was sustained in Jermyn and other towns by reason of the concussion.

A Thief's Desperate Game.

Indianapolis, Ind., February 16 — H S Garner, foreman in the printing establishment of W. B. Buford, received $400 yesterday afternoon with which to pay employes. While passing through one of the rooms, a stranger struck him heavily upon the head, felling him to the floor. The man then presented a revolver, and held it against Garner's head, while he pocketed the money. Telling his victim if he moved he would kill him, the robber started to the street.

As soon as he passed out of the room Garner rose and cried for help, and the employes ran in pursuit. On the lower floor one of them struck the revolver from the hand of the robber as he passed him, and he was overpowered and bound. He had another revolver in his pocket The man is unknown and is believed to be from Cincinnati.

English Money is Coming.

New York, Feb., 16.—Mr. Ansel Oppenheim, vice president of the Great Western railway, arrived today from Europe, Mr. Oppenheim said to-night: "The Englishmen have stopped selling our securities. There is a general feeling on the other hand that the whole world is entering on a period of prosperity. The Englishmen are all buying our securities, all reports to the contrary, notwithstanding. In all the recent trouble they did not hesitate to advance me $1,000,000 for the settlement of the Chicago Great Western.

"Before six months have passed all of this class of American securities will be in great demand in England, as there is a large amount of idle money. English railroad earnings and dividends are on the increase and things look bright for American securities in England."

Lynched a Murderer.

Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 16—Robert Williams, the negro who shot and killed Policeman John F. Suggs in this city Friday night, was lynched in the suburbs of the city last night. Williams was arrested at Cowles station, about 30 miles from here, on the Western road. He was brought to Montgomery in charge of Deputy Sheriff Young and local policemen.

To escape a mob arrangements had been made to take the prisoner from the train at the Savannah, Americus and Montgomery railroad crossing, about a mile and a half out. When the train stopped and the officers appeared with the negro they were confronted by a large crowd who immediately seized the negro and hurried him away to a tree to which he was strung up and his body riddled with bullets.

Wealth in Phosphate Rock.

Mifflintown, Pa., Feb. 15.—The great beds of phosphate rock that are said to have been discovered at Reed's Gap, Juniata county, may prove a bonanza. The United States Georgaphical survey has received samples of the phosphate rock recently found. Analyses show from 12 to 50 per cent. phosphoric acid. The highest is found in modules somewhat resembling the coprolitic forms found in South Carolina.

Professor Ihlseng, of the State College, has visited the locality and made over 150 analyses, with varying results. Much more prospecting will be done in the spring, and it is said that if the beds prove large it will be a matter of great importance to the fertilizer factories in Philadelphia and other places.

Killed His Father.

Zanesville, O., Feb. 16.—W. H. Boring, a potter and highly respected man of Crooksville, a village near here, last evening left home to attend to the burning of a kiln and did not expect to return home until daylight. About 2 o'clock he had occasion to visit the house, and, on finding the door locked, was in the act of raising the window, when his son, who had heard him, fired, supposing him to be a burglar. The sound of the shot aroused the neighbors, and they came to the house to find the son crazed with grief bending over the dead form of his father.

A Whole Family Dead or Dying.

Egg Harbor, Wis., Feb. 16.——Two weeks ago Mrs. Michael Carmond died of what was supposed to be typhoid fever. Her death was followed a few days later by that of the eldest daughter, and the second daughter expired Friday, Three more of the family are very low, and none of them are expected to recover. Upon examination, it was found that the family had been eating plentifully of Summer sausage, which showed trichina to a considerable extent.

SURE OF NEW SHIPS.

Four and Maybe Six Battleship May Be Built.

NEW TORPEDOBOATS FAVORED.

The House Sub-Committee on Naval Affairs In Favor of Improving the Navy—Guns to Be Built For the Subsidized Ocean Flyers.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—A considerable increase in the number of battleships for the navy is likely if the views prevail of the sub-committee of the house naval affairs committee having in charge the preparation of the naval appropriation bill. The sub-committee was in session several hours, and the discussion disclosed a majority in favor of making provision for at least four and probably six line-of-battle ships. The torpedoboats to be authorized will depend very largely on the number of battleships recommended. Should only four battleships be provided for some of the members think 20 torpedoboats should be allowed, but if an agreement is reached that six battleships are wanted, then the number of torpedoboats will probably not exceed six to ten.

Secretary Herbert recommended a provision for the enlistment of 1,000 additional men for the navy, and favorable action was taken by the sub-committee regarding it. These men are needed, many of them, for the manning of the new ships, being commissioned from time to time. The sum of $200,000 will be appropriated toward the construction of guns for the vessels subsidized by the government—such as the Paris and the New York, and which may be called on for naval purposes in case of necessity.

SENATORS HAVE TILTS.

Lively Colloquys Between a Number—Appropriation Bills Passed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The session of the senate furnished a succession of breezy incidents. Little actual work was accomplished, but brief debates in a number of subjects developed frequent sharp personal exchanges between the senators. Mr. Hill of New York had a lively tilt with Mr. Tillman of South Carolina during the debate on Mr. Peffer's resolution for a senate investigation of the recent bond issue. Mr. Allen of Nebraska joined issue with Mr. Gear of Iowa and Mr. Wolcott over the course of the Pacific railway committee in conducting their inquiry. Mr. Chandler and Mr. Cockrell had an animated but good natured colloquy, and General Hawley and Mr. Allen had a difference somewhat less good natured.

Two appropriation bills, the military academy and the pension bill, were passed. Efforts were made to amend the military academy bill by increasing the number of cadets by two from each state, 90 in all, but after a debate of three hours the plan was defeated. The pension appropriation bill, carrying $142,000,000, was passed, after 10 minutes' debate.

MORTON MUST DISTRIBUTE SEEDS

The Agricultural Bill Amended and Passed by the House.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The house has passed the agricultural appropriation bill. It carries $3,158,192. The section of the revised statutes for the purchase and distribution of "rare and uncommon" seed which Secretary Morton declined to execute in the current appropriation law was repealed, the appropriation for seed was increased from $150,000 to $150,000, and its execution was made mandatory upon the secretary. Mr. Couzins of Iowa introduced his amendment to reduce Mr. Morton's salary from $8,000 to $25 until he expended the appropriation in the current law, but the amendment was ruled out on a point of order. Several amendments to the meat inspection act of 1891 recommended by Mr. Morton, which would have given him additional power to enforce regulations and have strengthened the law by the imposition of penalties and violations, were stricken out.

A resolution was addopted directing the committee on ways and means to investigate the effect of the difference of exchange between gold and silver standard countries upon the manufacturing industries of the United States.

GOLD RESERVE ABOVE $100,000,000

Morgan Syndicate Likely to Get the Bonds Not Paid For.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Secretary Carlisle has not yet decided to whom shall be awarded the bonds upon which default of payment of the first installment was made, nor will he do so until the exact amount of the defaults has been ascertained. There seems to be no reasonable doubt, however, that they will be awarded to J. P. Morgan and his associates under their blanket bid of 110.6877.

The gold withdrawals yesterday were: Coin, $896,700; bars, $55,800; leaving the true amount of the gold reserve $90,439,784. It is stated, however, that estimates received of gold deposits at the several sub-treasuries during the last few days increase the reserve to about $110,000,000.

CLARA BARTON AT WORK.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Full success has attended the efforts of Miss Clara Barton to prepare the way for the distribution of alms among the sufferers in Armenia. United States Minister Terrell, at Pera, Turkey, has cabled Secretary Olney that he presented Miss Barton at the sublime porte and received renewed assurances of full protection and aid for her agents in dispensing charity.

Her assistants go at once to the interior of Turkey, while Miss Barton's headquarters will be established at Pera, the diplomatic suburb of Constantinople. Mr. Terrell has labored hard with the Turkish government to secure these privileges for Miss Barton.

A Crazy German's Crime.

BROOKLYN, Feb. 19.—Crazed with jealousy because his wife and son had left him, Franz Michael Schwab, a German laborer, 56 years old, visited the home of his married son Bernard, killed his wife and shot Bernard and a baby grandchild. He was arrested. He is believed to be insane.

Pursued by a Demon.

How many suicides, think you, reader, have been committed by persons driven distraught and hunted to their doom by the demon of chronic ill health? Count ess. For instance, we know, do we not, that hypochondriasis is a monomania —a sort of minor madness produced by chronic dyspepsia? Again, insomania, or sleeplessness, often a result of the same cause, culminates in a derangement of the reasoning faculties. It is, therefore, of momentous consequence to prevent the arrival of disease at its chronic phase, when it daily and nightly scourges the sufferer to a dangerously uncertain goal. No medicine known to science, as a means of arresting the maladies to which it is adapted, exists equal to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Among these complaints are chronic indigestion and insomania, kidney and rheumatic ailments, constipation and liver trouble. Appetite is improved by the Bitters, the blood fertilized, and bodily substance and vigor increased by it.

—Three two-story frame buildings, owned by H. Ivory, on Sixteenth street, Altoona, were gutted by fire caused by a defective flue on Sunday afternoon. The buildings contained a grocery, barber shop and meat market on the first floor, with residences above. Loss, $2,000; partially covered by insurance.

—One of the hottest fights for the election of city officials that has ever taken place in Johnstown was held on Tuesday. The citizens were disgusted with the Republican reign of corruption and mismanagement, and they turned out in force. The result was as follows: Dr. George Wagner, Democrat, elected by a majority of 574; B. F. Speedy, Democrat, for city treasurer, by a majority of 500; for controller, Samuel Lenhart, Democrat, defeated John J. Brown, Republican, by 300 votes. All the city officers are now Democrats.

—One of the largest lumber and timber land deals in the history of Pennsylvania has just been consummated in Johnstown. It involves the timber right to 3,000 acres of land in the vicinity of Friendsville, Somerset county, and 21,000,000 feet of lumber. The purchasers are John W. Clark, of Cush Corners, Warren county, Pa.; Hiram F. Andrew and Clinton F. Morris, of Garland, N. Y.; Alfred D. Neal and Dr. F. A. Stonesigher, of Marionville, Pittsburg; James B. Chapman, of Dunkirk, N. Y., and Harry E. Clark, of Glen Campbell, Indiana county, Pa. A branch of the Bando railroad, fourteen miles in length, will be run from the main line in Somerset county to the timber tract.

Johnstown's Latest Fire.

The Johnstown Tribune of Tuesday says:

About 2:30 o'clock this morning Mr. Will James, of the Grand Central hotel, discovered a small blaze in Ralph Reed's Sixth avenue cafe, at the north end of the Walnut street bridge, in the Thirteenth ward. Mr. Harry Weaverling, the hotel clerk, was at once aroused, and an alarm was sent in from box No. 137, at the corner of Iron street and Turner alley. In a short time the Millville, Assistance, Good Will and the Fourteenth ward companys arrived and fought the flames for three hours.

Mr. Reed's cafe was burned to the ground and Mr. L. C. Coldren's lunch room and residence were badly damaged by fire and water. The former is a carpenter by trade, and the only thing saved from his building was a tool chest. A number of Mr. Coldren's household goods and some fruits and candies were carried out of his place while the building was in flames. Thomas Parfit, Jr., who was assisting Mr. Coldren to carry some household goods from his place, fell from a second-story window and was badly injured.

The building in which Reed had his cafe was owned by Mr. Joe Dixton, who estimates his loss at $300. Mr. Reed's loss is about $800, and Mr. Coldren places his loss at about $2,000. He carried a small insurance on both the building and contents.

Six of the large window panes in the Grand Central hotel were cracked by the heat, and Mr. James says it will require $350 to replace them. The hotel is insured in a company for which Mr. G. W. Millspaw, of Lorain, O., is agent.

The origin of the fire is not known, but it is thought to have caught from the heater in Reed's cellar or the gas jet which was burning near the heater.

Supreme Court Decision.

Philadelphia, Feb. 17.—Among the decisions handed down by the Supreme Court to-day was the following:

By Justice Fell—Powell vs. Lantzy, C. P., Cambria. The assignments of error are overruled and the judgment is affirmed.

Following is a syllabus of the case:

POWELL & LANTZY AND THE BLUKAKER COAL COMPANY.

Mining Law—Mineral Rights and Surface Separate Estates—Equitable Rules.

Where one party owns the mineral rights and another the surface in the same tract of land, each party has a separate and distinct estate therein, and the equitable rules as obtain between tenants in common or joint tenants do not apply in such a case. Tax Titles—Community of Interest—Equities.

There is no such community of interest between the owner of the surface and the owner of the mineral rights in the same tract as will prevent the owner of the surface from purchasing under and setting up, after maturity, a tax under a sale for taxes which antedate the severance, and therefore bound the undivided estate. Such tax title, after maturity, vests in the purchaser a perfect title.

Ejectment. C. P., Cambria Co., March term, 1895, No. 136.

J. B. McEnally, for plaintiff; F. A. Shoemaker and Alvin Evans for defendants.

Steel Wagon Roads.

Steel wagon roads, as advocated by Martin Dodge, state road commissioner of Ohio, are likely to have a thorough trial in several states this year. These roads consist of two rails made of steel the thickness of boiler plate, each formed in the shape of a gutter five inches wide, with a square perpendicular shoulder half an inch high, then an angle of one inch outward slightly raised. The gutter forms a conduit for the water, and makes it easy for the wheels to enter or leave track. Such a double track steel railroad, 16 feet wide, filled in between with broken stone, macadam size, would cost about $6,000 as against $7,000 per mile for macadam roadbed of the same width, but the cost of a rural one-track steel road would be only about $2,000 a mile. It is said that such a road would last much longer than stone and that one horse will draw on a steel track twenty times as much as on a dirt road, and five times as much as on macadam.

Fire in Summerhill.

On Thursday afternoon of last week a fire, supposed to have been caused by a defective flue, broke out in the residence of Stephen Dimond, of Summerhill, and so rapid was the progress of the flames that the building and all the household goods were consumed. A house adjoining, owned by Mr. James Plummer and occupied by Lewis White was also destroyed. Owing to the prompt work of the neighbors, most saved, but some in a damaged condition. There was $600 insurance on the property destroyed, which will not begin to cover the loss.

The Farmers' Institute.

At the farmers' institute held here on Thursday of last week, the following is the most important part of the proceedings.

The question how to abolish Canada thistles was answered by Col. Woodward, who said the proper way is to cut them off continually—deprive them of their lungs.

Mr. Joseph Farabaugh advocated pulling the plants out with a pair of pincers.

Hon. A. A. Barker gave his experience, detailing how he had endeavored to dig them out, burn them off, and put salt on them and finally gave up.

Mr. Thomas L. Jones, who bought the farm from Mr. Barker, pulls them.

Mr. McCormick said he had known them to be killed by covering with straw and and letting it remain for several years.

Dr. Rothrock has known them to be killed near the sea level by going over the path frequently with a lawn mower; but in high altitudes he believes it is harder to keep them under.

Secretary Edge cautioned people to burn straw in which fruit trees had been received from New York.

Mr. Wertz had killed them by salting the sheep on the patch frequently.

"What is the cause of blasted oats?" Dr. Rothrock explained that this is propagated by spores—a body that has no embryo. All smuts come from infected seed—following up the stem from the root, and breaking down the kernel. Soak oats for twenty four hours in liver of sulphur (potassium sulphide,) one to one and one-half pounds in twenty-five gallons of water in a wooden vessel, stir frequently; three bushels of oats can be placed in this. This can be used three times for nine bushels of oats. For stinking smut, pass through water of 110 degrees, and subsequently of 122 degrees. This is beneficial for the oats, and increases the production.

A query with regard to blueweed was answered by Dr. Rothrock, who cautioned people to beware of it and pull it out.

The yellow daisy was described; it is a little sunflower. Mr. W. R. Gregg, of Fallen Timber, says he killed the plant by covering it with coal tar.

"Does continued cutting of potatoes cause them to run out?" Secretary Edge does not believe that potatoes are running out. Pototoes are not roots; they are tubers.

A question relative to the slacking of lime—Is slacking by air the same as by water?—was answered by Prof. Hamilton that the effect is the same. If left exposed too long, it becomes carbonate of lime. He prefers to plow lime under, but it will work down.

Mr. Anselm Weakland had plowed lime down in the fall, and planted corn on the ground in the spring, and got no corn.

On clayey soils slacked lime will have a tendency to keep the particles apart; but in sandy soil it may cause it to adhere. The effect on vegetable mold is to render it insoluble, which may have been the case with Mr. Weakland's crop; but the lime will eventually act. Lime without something to act on is useless. The best rule is to test a small portion of his farm, and if lime is found beneficial, he can then apply it. Get pure lime. All lime is not pure—some contains carbonate of magnesia, which is injurious. This is produced from limestone containing cement.

At the afternoon session Colonel Woodward explained the Chautauqua Course of Reading.

Secretary Edge repeated his talk of Wednesday on the analysis of fertilizers. Professor Hamilton talked on clover—common and crimson. Clover is one of the cheapest of fertilizers. A gentleman dried at a temperature of 212 degrees the product of an acre of ground, and had 1,810 pounds; the roots, dried, weighed 1,418 pounds. This would represent an amount equal double the weight of air-dried product. Clover takes carbon from the air-dried product. Clover takes carbon from the air, and places about as much in the soil as it leaves above the ground.

Clover also absorbs free nitrogen from the air—a power which no other plant possesses. Nitrogen is worth from fifteen cents to eighteen cents per pound. After taking off two crops of hay the roots on an acre will contain one hundred pounds of nitrogen, and as the last crop would contain one hundred pounds, if you turn down the clover the second year, you place in the soil for plant food $30 worth of nitrogen. Crimson clover is a plant you can sow in June and July, and it will ripen in May. It is an annual, and has to be sown for each crop. Crimson clover sown in cornfields at last working will cover it in the winter. Some people sow in stubble fields. Seed must be only one year old or it will not grow.

Prof. Hamilton, in reply to a query as to Canada peas, said he believed it a splendid plant. Sown with oats it makes a splendid food for cattle.

Being asked about pasturing crimson clover in the fall, he said he would not do so, although it could be done. He does not believe in pasturing. He keeps his cows in the stable.

Mr. Thomas gave a flattering account of his experience with crimson clover sown in corn last summer.

Prof. Hamilton explained how clover may be made to "catch" by top dressing the ground with barnyard manure or other fertilizer.

Colonel Woodward spoke on "Barnyard Manure." Manure carelessly kept in the barnyard will fire-fang. If put on the field it will not lose from that cause.

Mr. E. E. Urich, of Monroe county, spoke on "Fertilizers."

Mr. Ulrich, being asked how he liked Jersey cows, replied that he liked them well; but he had known Guernseys better. Test the milk of your cows with a milk tester.

"Has any one had experience with winter oats?" Mr. Ulrich said that he had once and only once. He did not think it could be raised in this high latitude.

He was asked about hollow horn and said that he did not believe there is such a thing as hollow horn.

Mr. McCormick contended that there is such a thing as hollow horn, and that he had seen it cured by boring a hole in the horn and interjecting a mixture of salt and black pepper, in equal parts, therein. The application of turpentine to the base of the horn is said to produce the same result

The subject of dehorning cattle was next discussed pro and con.

"What kind of winter apples are the best to graft in this latitude?" was discussed at length. The Northern Spy, Baldwin, King of Tompkins county, Long Island Greening, and others were suggested as good keepers.

Mr. Ulrich, being asked what kind of cows paid him best in his experience of darying, would not advise fancy prices for thoroughbred cattle, as often others were as good, seven-eighths blood being preferred.

Mr. Ulrich believes in applying lime by manuring the ground, spreading, plowing down, and applying lime on the top of the ground.

Mr. Thomas announced that if a proper place can be secured for holding it, another institute will be held in the south of the county.

Mr. McCormick said that Johnstown people would welcome an institute, and he thought a suitable hall could be procured.

Mr. D. S. Yoder thought likewise, and agreed to look the matter up.

The lecture of Dr. J. T. Rothrock, in the court room in the evening, entitled "Beautiful Pennsylvania," was a highly instructive talk on a very interesting subject.

—The Democrats of Hastings did nobly on election day having swung that town into the Democratic column by safe majorities. It once was the other way but the Democrats now claim that it is Democratic to stay.

—A great many people who graft stone fruits, such as cherries and plums, wonder why they have such poor success. The cherry and plum trees start their sap very early and the grafting is then less successful. We have the authority of an old and experienced nurseryman for the statement that if cherries and plums are grafted early in the Spring, while the frost is yet in the ground and before the sap starts, they will grow as easily and readily as pears and apples. Try it if you intend grafting any of the stone fruits.

THE KEELEY CURE

Is a special boon to business men who, having drifted unconsciously into the drink habit and awaken to find the disease of alcoholism fastened upon them, rendering them unfit to manage affairs requiring a clear brain. A four weeks course of treatment at the restores to them all their powers, mental and physical, destroys the abnormal appetite, and restores them to the condition they were in before they indulged in stimulants. This has been done in more than 1600 cases treated here, and among them some of your own neighbors, to whom we can refer with confidence as to the absolute safety and efficiency of the Keeley Cure. The fullest and most searching investigation is invited. Send for pamphlet giving full information.

PITTSBURG KEELEY INSTITUTE,
No. 4246 Fifth Avenue,

REFORMERS BEATEN.

Their Tickets Lose In Philadelphia and Pittsburg.

THE QUAY MEN VOTED STRAIGHT.

They Failed to Support the Ticket of the Municipal League In the Quaker City. Results of the Elections Held Throughout the State.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 19.—The returns from the contested wards in this city indicate that the municipal league has failed in its effort to secure the election to councils of reformers. In the Eighth ward, where a hard fight was made against Wencel Hartman, who is president of common councils, that gentleman was elected by nearly 1,000 majority. In the Fifth ward a bitter fight was waged against James B. Anderson, whose course in select council for years past has displeased the reformers. Nevertheless, he was returned by over 1,000 majority. In other wards the result was equally discouraging to the municipal leaguers. The followers of Senator Quay, who are known as "anti-combiners," were expected to help the municipal league in its effort to defeat the "combine" candidates, but they appear to have voted and worked for the regular Republican ticket, with the result that the reformers were "snowed under."

Edward A. Devlin, Republican and Maurice F. Wilhere, Democrat, were re-elected magistrates, the latter under the law relating to minority representation.

The tickets were headed by John L Kinsey and Arthur Biddle, respectively Republican and Democratic candidates for city solicitor. Kinsey was elected by a majority that will probably exceed the Democratic vote. The campaign was noteworthy for the especially bitter fights in many of the wards, due to the factional split in the Republican ranks, the efforts of the municipal league, and here and there to the activity of the Democrats.

A municipal election, when a mayor is not to be chosen, is usually marked by a light vote. In 17 out of the 37 wards, owing to the heated contests between rival candidates for select and common council an unusually heavy spring vote was recorded, and the voting was so varied and independent that the work of counting the ballots lasted far into the morning.

PITTSBURG—The combined reform and Democratic ticket has been knocked out in this city. Republican Chairman Flinn claims a majority of 4,000 for Ford, mayor; Gourley, controller, and Torrence, treasurer.

The Republican ticket was elected in Allegheny, as there was practically no opposition.

ALTOONA—Returns indicate the election of Murray, Democrat, for mayor, and Nicholson, Democrat, for controller, over Barr and Harpam, Republicans. The Republicans elect the school directors, city assessors and majority of the councilmen.

WILLIAMSPORT—James Mansel, Prohibitionist, supported by voters of all parties, was elected mayor by a plurality of about 500, over S. N. Williams, Republican, and A. S. Corle, Democrat.

HARRISBURG—Semi-official returns indicate the election of John D. Patterson, Republican, mayor by 1,000 plurality over Charles P. Walter, Democrat.

CHAMBERSBURG — The Democrats elected George C. Cooke, borough auditor, although the nominal Republican majority is 350. Three Democratic councilmen and one school director were also elected.

LANCASTER—Mayor Edwin S. Smeltz, Republican, was re-elected by a majority of 490 over Benjamin F. Davis, Democrat. The council is heavily Republican, although the Democrats make a slight gain.

BRADFORD—The Democratic candidate for mayor, George C. Fagnan, was elected by a safe majority over Charles L. Wheeler, Republican. Archibald McLean, Democrat, was re-elected city treasurer, and A. D Sloan, Republican, city controller.

FRANKLIN—Bryan Osborne, Republican, was elected mayor over M. Wilson, the Prohibition candidate, and Osborne's majority will exceed 389 votes.

JOHNSTOWN—The whole Democratic city ticket was elected.

BEAVER FALLS—The Republican city ticket was elected.

OIL CITY—Fawcett, Democrat, was elected mayor. Republicans carried everything else.

LEOMSTER—Those in favor of building municipal waterworks won.

WASHINGTON — Republicans elected their entire borough ticket and three out of the school directors, while the Democrats elect three out of four councilmen.

BUTLER—Keck, Democrat, and Anderson, Republican, are elected justices of the peace.

MEADVILLE—Of the seven councilmen elected all are Republicans. The Republicans elected four new school directors.

BELLEFONTE—The election here resulted as follows: Treasurer, Charles Cook, Republican; poor overseer, Isaac Miller, Republican; auditor, H. B. Pontius, Republican; councilmen, H. C Valentine, B. F. Shaffer, Henry, Lowery and C. T. Gerberich, all Republicans.

NEW CASTLE—Mayor Smith is likely re-elected. His three opponents were Republicans.

CONNELLSVILLE—The Democrats won by 178 votes.

HOLLIDAYSBURG—The contest was between the advocates of the municipal ownership of electric light plant and the friends of a private electric light company. The company was beaten in every ward.

CARTER SETTLES A DISPUTE.

Differences Arise in an Ohio District Regarding Republican Delegates.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Senator Carter (Mont.), chairman of the Republican national committee, has rendered a decision that will be of interest in every congressional district in the selection of delegates to the St. Louis convention. In the Tenth Ohio district a faction of the Republican party undertook to elect the two delegates from the district at a primary election.

The opposing faction, led by ex-Congressman Thompson, contended that the delegates must be selected according to the practice of selecting congressional candidates in the district, namely, at a convention of delegates chosen by primaries. To secure a decision upon the subject Judge Thompson formally appealed to Chairman Carter and was sustained.

Opposed to Seating Dupont.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19—Senator Turpie, from the committee on privileges and elections, has presented the report of the minority of that committee against the seating of Henry A. Dupont to be given a seat in the senate by virtue of the vote cast for him by the Delaware legislature on May 9, 1895.

Gov. Bushnell Approves Extradition.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 19.—Sheriff Julie Plumer of Campbell county, Ky., has reached here with a requisition approved by Governor Bushnell for the extradition of the accused prisoners Jackson and Walling.

Daughters of the Revolution.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The fifth annual continental congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution is in session at the Church of Our Father.

OVER FIFTY PERISHED.

A Fearful Gas Explosion Occurs In a Colorado Mine.

NEW CASTLE, Col., Feb. 19.—An explosion has occurred at the vulcan mine which was the most disastrous ever known in the history of this camp, and dozens of homes in this little city are desolate.

The force of the explosion caused a cavein, and the tunnel and air courses were filled with the fallen rock, earth and timbers. Both fan houses were wrecked and the slope and vicinity were so full of debris and the gas was so bad that it was very dangerous work to begin the rescue. Nevertheless, willing hands were soon at work, and five men went down as far as possible to ascertain the condition of the slope, and found it such that it will require much work to regain the laborers. The gas was so bad that after the party had gotten 200 feet they were compelled to recede.

The construction of a temporary fan-house was commenced at once, and the work of pumping fresh air into the mine will soon begin. It is hardly possible that any of the miners are still alive, but the starting of the fans will be made as soon as possible, so that if any have survived they may be kept alive till help reaches them. The only man who got out of the mines at the time of the explosion was Edward Welch, who was near the mouth of the tunnell, and was blown out, his skull fractured, arm broken, face badly cut and burned and all the hair burned from his head. He was breathing when found, but expired shortly after without showing consciousness.

Between 50 and 66 men were in the mine at the time, and all are supposed to have perished.

It is thought the disaster may have been caused by the breaking into an immense pocket of gas generated by fires that are continually burning in the mines. On Feb. 6 State Coal Mine Inspector Griffith inspected the mine and pronounced it in splendid condition, and the work is said to have been done at all times in the most careful manner.

THE MISSING TURN UP.

Three the Number Dead From the Troy Fire Disaster.

TROY, N. Y., Feb. 19.—What seems almost a miracle in connection with the disastrous conflagration in Troy is the fact made evident that the loss of life is no greater than was accurately detailed by these dispatches yesterday. The list of three killed and 15 wounded is verified, and the miracle appears in the fact that those noted as missing have reported, and out of the 300 human beings who crushed and struggled for life in the flame-bound building but three fatal endings came. The names of those who were killed and wounded were correctly given exclusively in these dispatches yesterday.

During the panic Rev. Michael Fogarty, assistant pastor of St. Peter's church, ran upstairs to cheer the girls with encouraging words. He gathered a number of women around him and led them safely from the burning building.

TO RESTRICT IMMIGRATION.

A Strong Bill Reported to the Senate by Senator Lodge.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19—Senator Lodge, chairman of the committee on immigration, has reported a bill from that committee for the restriction of immigration. The bill provides for the exclusion of all persons who are so ignorant as to be unable to read and write any language. Senator Lodge presented a written report on the bill in which he says:

"This measure if adopted will exclude a large portion of the present immigration and with few exceptions will tell exclusively on the most undesirable portions of immigration alone. No measure can be devised which will let in absolutely everyone who ought to come in and exclude every immigrant who ought to be shut out, but the percentage of desirable immigrants who would be excluded by this bill would be reduced to the minium."

BLACKBALLED ANDREW CARNEGIE.

A Lawyer's Speech Bars Him From the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 19.—The Cleveland chamber of commerce has blackballed the name of Andrew Carnegie, which had been proposed for honorary membership.

Before the vote was taken L. A. Russell a leading attorney made a speech, saying that he had been led to suspect Mr. Carnegie made his fortune because of tariff protection, and he also suspected from what he had read of the Homestead strike that he was an oppressor of the poor. Unless somebody could convince him to the contrary, he would vote against admitting Mr. Carnegie to membership. Five blackballs were voted—the constitutional number required to debar an applicant.

Taylor Calls Spain to Time.

MADRID, Feb. 19.—The Herald announces that the United States minister, Mr. Hannis Taylor, has addressed a curt note to the government demanding explanations regarding the address delivered before a geographical society by Senor Conyas, who commanded the caravel Santa Maria sent over by Spain to the Columbian exposition, giving his impressions of his visit to the United States.

The Wife Burned to Death.

STAMFORD, Conn., Feb. 19.—Fire has destroyed the farm house of Charles Gildermeister at Buztom Place, Riverton. Mrs. Gildermeister returned to the house for some valuable papers and money, and was burned to death. Mr. Gildermeister was so badly injured that he can scarcely recover.

The Church Trying Rev. Brown.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19.—The trial of the Rev. C. O. Brown of the First Congregational church, as a result of the charges made against him by Mrs. Davidson, the alleged blackmailer, has commenced. The council is composed of ministers and laymen from San Francisco and nearby cities.

May Break Up the Trust.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Feb. 19.—It is stated here that there is a movement under way by large stockholders in the United States Wall Paper Trust to dissolve that corporation, because of its failure to pay any dividends since last April on $8,000,000 of preferred stock.

An Embezzler Shoots Himself.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 19.—Charles S. Nazworthy, assignee of the American Lounge company, has been removed from his trust by Judge Brown of the circuit court. Later he shot himself fatally. He was short in his accounts.

Rome Trainwreckers Indicted.

UTICA, N. Y., Feb. 19.—The grand jury in session here has handed up an indictment against the youthful Rome trainwreckers, J. W. Hildreth, Theodore Hibbard, Herbert Plato and Fred Bristol, of murder in the first degree. They wrecked a fast mail Nov. 19.

Folsom's Defalcations Grow.

EPPING, N. H., Feb. 19.—Developments now indicate that the amount of the late State Senator Folsom's defalcations will reach at least $20,000. The sum has been growing since last Friday, when Folsom's death was announced.

Cleveland to Be Heard From.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—Mr. E. C. Benedict, the personal friend of President Cleveland, says: "Mr. Cleveland will answer the third term question very distinctly at a no distant day. He will not keep the Democrats waiting."
